American Rescue Plan Humanities Grants Awards by city

BACKGROUND: Funding for American Rescue Plan Humanities Grants was provided to North Carolina Humanities by the National Endowment for the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARP), approved by Congress and signed into law by President Biden in March 2021. The $1.9 trillion ARP package included $135 million in supplemental funding for the National Endowment for the Humanities, nearly $51.6 million, or a total of 40%, of which was sent to the state and jurisdictional humanities councils across the nation, including North Carolina Humanities, to distribute to local cultural nonprofits and programming.

BACKGROUND: Funding for American Rescue Plan Humanities Grants was provided to North Carolina Humanities by the National Endowment for the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARP), approved by Congress and signed into law by President Biden in March 2021, to distribute to local cultural nonprofits and programming. Project Support Grant funding supports costs directly associated with restarting humanities projects impacted by the pandemic, creating new humanities projects, digitizing humanities resources/collections and making them available online, humanities projects highlighting North Carolina's COVID-19 experience, and other program services.
