OUR LOGO

The logo represents our shared humanity—individual stories from different peoples stitched together, with no element isolated, all connected, with the vibrancy and energy of our collective curiosity and our unique perspectives.

It is symbolic of the infinite possibilities we create through dialogue, empathy, learning, celebration, and the understanding of our differences and our commonalities.

OUR NAME

Name Abbreviation

In written communication, North Carolina Humanities should always be written out on first reference. Upon second reference, North Carolina Humanities, NC Humanities and NCH are acceptable. Do not use N.C.H. or N.C. Humanities.

The humanities are everything that makes us human, traditionally with an emphasis on culture, history, literature, philosophy and ethics.

NCH brings North Carolinians of every walk of life together to have shared experiences around the humanities and dialogue amongst themselves, sharing their unique perspectives, so that it might create understanding and deeper human connections that can strengthen our statewide community.

We facilitate, fund and support programming and events that help us further understand or document the human experience.
